

Proudly Australian and creating 4,300 jobs for Queenslanders.

The Santos Gladstone Liquefied Natural Gas project is employing locals directly and indirectly. For regional towns like Roma, it's meant that the unemployment rate has dropped to just 2.2%. Our project will see Queensland become a global force as an LNG exporter, creating new job opportunities for years to come. For the full story, visit santoslng.com